

KELLEHERS AUSTRALIA

Kellehers Australia was asked by the Victorian Assisted Reproductive Treatment Authority (VARTA) to adapt its in-house Check-Lists to a series that could be made available to the public generally via the Victorian Assisted Reproductive Treatment Authority website. After close working with the VARTA those checklists are now uploaded and in widespread use:

The checklists also assisted medical practitioners and family members.

We are proud to assist those bringing new life in the world. It is important to us that the complex law is made as simple as possible. The welfare and happiness of future children is at stake: as well as the happiness of all the adults involved.

Kellehers is proud to be associated pro bono with such groundbreaking and important community information.
